

The Director's Office, Continental Security Agency
Washington, DC

The 1st Amendment of the Issue of International Security

This documentation ("the Issue of International Security, Issue Amendment 1") highlights the official release and confirmation of the Continental Security Agency as the leading International Security Agency confirmed by the prev. United Nations, prev. International Court of Justice, prev. International Criminal Court as well as the President of the United States of America, HON. Fitz Gerald Grant III.

In this amendment is the new cabinet departments and those departments' secretaries, the agencies within those departments and as well as the updated list of the Security Council, including the International Intelligence Council.

The amendments to the Issue of International Security are as follows;

1. As of 01 April 2025, the indexes representing the Continental Security Agency has been terminated. The indexes; The Great Seal of the United States of America and the Republic of the Maldives. This decision was made by the United Continents Security Council, because it has an effect on the stance of political fairness and international fairness statue that was liberated after the release of the CSA by the prev. United Nations. The indexes will now be in the United Continents General Assembly, apart of the leading countries. The leading countries of the UCGA will be officialized by the President of the United Continents.
2. As of 06 April 2025, the Director of the Continental Security Agency has terminated the Chain of Command of the CSA, and has renamed the CoC to International Commanders Body (ICB). The ICB is handled by the Madam Chief of the Department of Internal Affairs, MAJ. Livian Valicha, PhD. After the introduction of the ICB will not be acting on the Command Act for Armed Forces (CAAF).
3. As of 16 March 2025, the Department of Public Affairs of the Director's Office has faced some changes, this means that the Senior Officials of the Director's Office will also be amended.
